Planters Na synoids orphan's home, located on the outsidities of Lynchburg, is to be doubled upon the erection of two additional cottages. There are now nity boys and girls in the orphanase and the new buildings are to furnish tacilities for sixty more.

The orphanase has been built anew since the memorable fire, three years ago, when five little girls lost their lives, the new buildings being located on another part of the large orphanase farm, the front having been sold to the Peakland Place syndicate. An avenue is being constructed now from the main street of the addition to the orphanage building. The group of buildings are at the top of a knoll, and make a beautiful sight from miles of surrounding country. During the past year the thousands of members of the churches in the Virginia Synogeontributed only $4,274 for the support of the institution, of which deemed.
